REMARKS

This is UNEVALUATED Information

1. On 13 February 1954, the sheds in the garage installation southeast of the railroad station in Bruck/Leitha (P 49/X 77) stored 18 armored vehicles. Two majors wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia left the garage installation toward the forest camp. Jeep driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets, departed from the low building east of the garage installation. One lieutenant colonel wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, truck and jeep each driven by a soldier wearing black-bordered red epaulets, were observed at the forest camp, which was guarded by a sentry wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Three majors wearing black-bordered red epaulets, some soldiers wearing black-bordered red epaulets and two majors wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia entered or left the new komendatura, which was guarded by a sentry wearing black-bordered red epaulets. Sedan driven by a soldier wearing black-bordered red epaulets, was parked in front of the komendatura.

2. Motor vehicles stored in the repair shop and garages at 109-111 Trost Strasse in Vienna on 17 February 1954 included two T-34 tanks which were identified by their turrets and tank guns, three trucks and several motor vehicles with special-purpose superstructures. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets constructed a shed-roof, about 30 meters long and about 10 meters wide, along the wall on Trost Strasse. Other soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets unloaded coal from truck driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Eight ZIS-3 76-mm field guns were observed in the garages at the water tower on Windten Strasse.

3. On 12 February 1954, soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and jeep driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets, were observed at the Trost Kaserne in Vienna, which was guarded by a sentry wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets loaded coal from trucks. Eight tank trucks were stored under two shed roofs on the drill ground of the Trost Kaserne. About 150 soldiers on the drill ground received training with rifles, machine guns and submachine guns. Three soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets received instruction by an officer at an ZIS-3 76-mm field guns. Truck driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets and loaded with apparently empty infantry ammunition boxes, left the ground. Six ZIS-3 76-mm field guns
